Travel Expenses Policy

Purpose

This policy explains which reasonable business travel costs may be claimed.

Eligible expenses

Reasonable costs for approved business travel may include public transport, mileage where applicable, parking, accommodation and meals subject to company limits.

Approval

Business travel should normally be approved by the employee's manager before the journey is booked.

Receipts

Employees should retain itemised receipts for expenses where available and provide them with the expense claim.

Submission

Travel expense claims should normally be submitted within 30 days of the date the expense was incurred.

Personal costs

Personal expenses and costs unrelated to approved business activity will not be reimbursed.

Exceptions

Any unusual or exceptional expense should be discussed with the employee's manager or Finance before being incurred where possible.
